

RWC 2023 – Form 3

Notification To Cancel Extended Trading Hours

Licensee Notification To No Longer Extend Trading Hours during the 2023 Rugby World Cup

Under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol (Rugby World Cup 2023 Extended Trading Hours) Amendment Act 2023, eligible on-licensees and club licensees who had already notified of their intention to open outside their permitted trading hours to televise live Rugby World Cup 2023 games, but who have subsequently decided not to televise any games on specified nights, must inform the relevant territorial authority and the constable at the nearest Police station of the changes:

New Zealand Police

Alcohol Harm Prevention Officer

Email: alcohol.queenstown@police.govt.nz

The Secretary

Queenstown Lakes District Licensing Committee

Email: alcoholinspectors@qldc.govt.nz

The notification must:

- be in writing and emailed;
- should provide the same details as the original notification, including date and information about the licence and premises;
- must make it clear which games (including date and time) the cancellation applies to.

The notification may:

- cover more than one game.

Premises Details

Details of premises to be open during extended hours:

Date of notification:

Licensee or Club Name:

Premises Trading Name:

Premises Address:

Type of Premises:

Date original notice to televise games was submitted:

