

NEW QLDC TIERED FILM PERMIT FEE SCHEDULE

As of 1 July 2022

	Low Impact	Medium Impact	High Impact
Film permit administration fee	$0	$250	$500
Submission process	Submission via form. Permit assessed by QLDC Property and Parks departments only.	Submission via form. Permit assessed by QLDC Property and Parks departments only.	Submission via form. Full permit assessment by multiple QLDC departments.
Permit status	Permit required.	Permit Required – other applications and necessary consent may be required.	Permit required – other applications and necessary consent may be required.
Crew size	0-5 people (not including talent).	6-20 people (not including talent).	20+ people (not including talent).
Number of equipment/vehicles	No trucks. Cars, utes and vans only.	1-6 trucks and other vehicles.	6+ trucks and other vehicles.
Infrastructure requirements	No infrastructure.	Minimal infrastructure e.g. Pop up tent.	Significant structures – may require resource consent.
Equipment requirements	Handheld equipment.	Minimal equipment e.g. lights, camera tracks.	Major equipment used e.g. camera cranes.
Traffic impact	No disruption of the roads nor footpaths.	Basic traffic management required.	Significant traffic management required. Closing of major roads.
Impact on the public and community wellbeing	No disruption is caused to council stakeholders, businesses, residents, motorists, visitors, community groups or other events in the vicinity.	Could be minor disruption to council stakeholders, businesses, residents, motorists, visitors, community groups or other events. Local letter notification required. Consultation with impacted parties encouraged.	Likely to be significant disruption to council stakeholders, businesses, residents, motorists, visitors, community groups or other events. Local letter notification and possibly consultation with impacted parties required.