May it please the Court:

1. We act for Queenstown Airport Corporation Limited (QAC) in relation to its appeal (Appeal) dated 19 June 2018 on Stage 1 of the Queenstown Lakes Proposed District Plan (Proposed Plan) (ENV-2018-CHC-093).
2. QAC gives notice that it wishes to withdraw part of its Appeal on Stage 1 of the Proposed Plan. Specifically, it wishes to withdraw the relief sought in its Appeal at:
  - (a) paragraph 18(g)(ix) where it seeks the deletion of Rule 17.4.13 - Visitor Accommodation; and
  - (b) paragraph 18(g)(x) where it seeks the reinsertion of notified Rule 17.5.8 - Acoustic treatment of Visitor Accommodation.
3. These appeal points have been allocated to Topic 21 Commercial Airports, for which mediation is scheduled from 10 – 13 September 2019. QAC has already circulated to the parties its position paper for the mediation, in which has indicated it is no longer pursuing the appeal points at paragraph 2 above. This notice of withdrawal now formally confirms that, for the avoidance of doubt, so that the mediation time can be utilised as efficiently as possible.

Dated this 28th day of August 2019
