

Park Street

Top left to right: Ambassadors report rubbish dumping and human faeces on Park Street.

Below left to right: Campers leave rubbish and belongings on street and beach on Park Street.

Kingston Lakefront Freedom Camp

Top left to right: At the Kingston Lakefront Freedom Camp Ambassadors find an abandoned tent and belongings and find evidence of human faeces.

Above: Fire pits are a common occurrence at this location

Below left: Rubbish dumping happened frequently when the bins were full.

Shotover Delta

Top left: A Van left by the Delta undergoes mechanical maintenance.

Below left to right: An abandoned tent and on another occasion fire pits and dumping was reported by the Ambassadors.

Luggate Red Bridge

Top left to right:

The Red Bridge in Luggate was consistently busy with vans over the summer, often spilling over to land out with the reserve. On one occasion ambassadors found campers washing in the lake, on another occasion socks were found left by the river.

Below left to right:

Ambassadors report a tent, and a Campervan that was abandoned for weeks on the land opposite the reserve. Toilet paper found by the river.

Queenstown Event Centre

Top left to right: Rubbish dumping at the QEC, campers block pathways with belongings. Mess left outside vehicles in the morning. Campers use carpark for cooking/eating areas.

Left: Pitched tent by sports field.

